

Corin Goodall (Business Unit Manager) was recently awarded a WasteSmart (Advanced level) certificate. Along with four others, Corin was in the first batch of people in Northern Ireland to be awarded this CIWM-accredited certificate. This provides companies with confidence that all areas are being assessed when conducting environmental audits.

Feel free to contact us today for a free audit of your waste streams.

